PREMIUMS AWARDED AT NEWRY FAIR

Largest Live Stock Exhibit at Saturday's Fair

The annual fair at Newry Corner, on Saturday, October 20th was a success as usual. The weather was a nice fall day. Owing to the unfavorable weather of the spring and summer, the vegetable exhibit was not as large as last year. The live stock exhibit was the largest and best ever had on the grounds. The fairs were as numerous as ever.

Old friends who had not seen each other for several years, clasped hands once more and enjoyed the day as usual. The ball game between Bethel and Bryant Pond, an account of which appears elsewhere in this issue, was claimed by some to be the most interesting game that Bethel has played. The music by the Rumford Band drew its usual crowd and was a popular feature. The premiums awarded on the exhibits are as follows:

Bethel's 4-H Clubs Hold Annual Contest

Interesting Exercises at Bethel Grange Hall Saturday Evening. Prizes Awarded

The East Bethel Garden Club held its local contest and demonstration with the 4-H clubs of Bethel in the Grange Hall, Saturday evening, Sept. 29.

The exhibits of poultry, potatoes and other vegetables grown by members of the clubs were well worthy of mention and prove that the boys and girls of these clubs are very efficient in their chosen projects. Mr. Anderson, Mr. Abbott and Mr. Bartlett deserve much credit for their splendid leadership of the boys and girls in the club work.

Beside the exhibition of the club work an excellent program was presented by the club members as follows: Address of welcome, East Bethel boys Club pledges, East Bethel boys Song, "Hail, Hail, the Club's All Here!" State of Maine club song, "My Season's Work," Robert Brown Piano duet.

Helen Anderson, Dorothy Hutchinson Song, "My Father and Mother Were Farmers," Boys and girls Chicken demonstration.

Donald Stanley, Richard Davis Song, "Old MacDonald Had a Farm," "My Season's Work," Donald Tyler Piano solo, Dorothy Hutchinson Potato demonstration.

Arthur Gibbs, Robert Brown Vocal solo, Elizabeth Beane "My Season's Work," Stanley Brown A pleasing part of the program for the boys and girls was the awarding of prizes by Miss Plummer, County club agent, as a reward for their effort in club work. A blue ribbon represents over 90%; red, 80%; white, 70%.

Potato club prizes: Blue ribbons—Leonard Tyler, Joseph Holt, Harris Tyler; red ribbons—Eugene Burns, Raymond Bartlett; white ribbons—Rodney Howe, Lincoln Merrill, Herschell Rye-son.

Following the program a series of games by all present, with Mr. Ridley at the piano.

Loren M. Glines passed away at the Western Maine Sanatorium at Hebron Friday morning, Sept. 28, following a long illness which he bore with great courage and strength.

He was born in Greenwood, Jan. 10, 1891, the son of Daniel and Matilda Glines, and with the exception of some eight years spent in railroad work in Massachusetts, had always lived in this vicinity. He married Miss Mahel Pierce at Allston, Mass., on July 10, 1907, who passed away the following year, leaving an infant daughter.

On Sept. 9, 1913, he married Miss Grace Pierce, a sister of his first wife, at Bethel, who survives him, with the daughter, Miss Ruth Glines of Bethel, one brother, Edwin Glines of Norway, and four sisters, Mrs. Delia Bennett of Sanford, and Mrs. Flora Blake, Mrs. Eva Herriek, and Mrs. Dorothy Blake, all of Bethel.

Mr. Glines was educated in the schools of Bethel and attended Gould Academy. He was a member of Nonantum Lodge, L. O. O. F., of Allston.

The funeral services at the Congregational Church Sunday afternoon were in charge of Mount Abram Lodge of Bethel, and Rev. L. A. Edwards, pastor of the church, officiated. Interment was at Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Glines had been in poor health for a number of years, and for the past eight years had been at the Sanatorium at Hebron. He was one who made friends readily and his brave fight for health and his thoughtfulness for others will long be remembered by his many friends. His family and other relatives have the deepest sympathy of the community in their great loss.

Arthur Ladd

Arthur Ladd of Rumford Point and Bethel committed suicide in the garage at his place at Rumford Point Tuesday afternoon. The reason for the act is not known.

Mr. Ladd and family have been at his place in Mayfield, formerly the Vashaw place, which he purchased last year, and where he had some 25 acres of potatoes this year. He is survived by his widow and several children.

Bethel Red Cross

The people of Bethel are asked to contribute to the Red Cross Florida Relief Fund. It is unnecessary to go into detail about the urgent needs of these distressed people. Contributions may be made directly to Mrs. G. L. Thurston and it is hoped everyone wishing to give will do this as it will eliminate the usual house to house canvass.

Fish & Game Association Hold Second Meeting

Good Attendance at Odeon Hall Tuesday Afternoon. Officers Re-elected

About 40 were present at the meeting of the Oxford County Fish and Game Association held at Odeon Hall Tuesday afternoon. The officers and executive committee who were elected at the first meeting of the Association last summer were returned to office. The president is Robert Seavey of Norway and the secretary and treasurer, Harry Shaw of South Paris.

It was decided to make an effort to secure new members. F. Perley Flint and Dr. W. B. Twaddle being on the committee for Bethel.

State Senator-elect Stanley M. Wheeler of South Paris, and Representative-elect Lon E. Wright of Newry were among the speakers. The Association has a membership of over 100 at present, and is open to all who are interested in fish and game. All such should get in touch with the local committee or the secretary-treasurer.

Eli Leland Mason

Died October 1st, 1928. Aged 91 years, 6 months, 17 days.

Mr. Mason was the son of Sylvanus and Lydia Scribner Mason and was born in Orléans, at "The Bog," 91 years ago last March—the oldest man in Bethel.

In early manhood he married Miss Julia Bennett, who passed away many years ago.

He was a skillful carpenter and for a number of years had lived in California and worked at his trade.

Many times he had journeyed from coast to coast, but as old age came to him the lure of his youthful "home-land" became too strong to resist, and amongst the hills of Bethel he has spent his last years.

His youngest son, Lee Mason, came from Oakland, Calif., and has been his constant companion for the past two years, giving him all the care and attention possible.

Leland Mason had been a very active man until a year or two ago and was the last one of a family of seven brothers, all of whom lived to become old men, useful and highly respected citizens. The oldest one, Woodman, was buried at Pomona, Calif., but all the others rest in the cemetery at West Bethel.

Mr. Mason leaves two sons, Cuvorno Mason of Sandown, N. H., and Lee Mason of Oakland, Calif., and one daughter, Mrs. Eva Glines, of Los Angeles, Calif. There are also a number of grandchildren and some nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be conducted in the church at West Bethel, this Thursday afternoon, and burial will be in the cemetery at that place.

God takes to himself our treasures, But turns not from him to weep; For to all there comes the assurance He giveth his loved ones sleep.

Yea! beyond, in Heaven's fair valleys Beside still waters they rest; With their labors on earth completed, God doth all things for the best.

And for deeds of tender kindness A reward shall surely reap When they pass through Heaven's gateway.

And God giveth his loved ones sleep. Then they'll roam in pastures of beauty Where softly the breeze doth sweep; There's no sickness, sorrow or parting In the land where His loved ones sleep.

Bethel, Maine, Oct. 2, 1928. A. K. M.

PAUL IN EPHEBUS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:1-20.
GOLDEN TEXT—We are his workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul's Bravery
 Against a Crowd.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's Bravery
 Against a Crowd.

 IC—Outgrowing Superstition.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOP-IC—Growing Together in Christ.

1. Paul Preaching in Ephesus (vv. 1-10).

1. In the synagogue (v. 8).
 Paul's custom was to go to the Jews first with the gospel, though they were his inveterate enemies. His preaching here was characterized by:

(1) Boldness. He knew that God had sent him and therefore that he was backed by divine authority. This should characterize every Christian worker.

(2) Argument. The gospel message is in accord with the highest reason.
 (3) Persuasion. It is not enough that the minister comes boldly with a reasonable message. It must be accompanied with persuasion. "Knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men."

(4) The message should have definite content.
 It was concerning the Kingdom of God. Paul's supreme theme was salvation through Christ.

2. In the schoolhouse of Tyrannus
 (vv. 9, 10).
 Paul's earnest scriptural and persuasive preaching only hardened the hearts of the Jews, even causing them to speak evil openly of this way of salvation by faith in Christ. It was for this reason that Paul separated the disciples from them and retired to the schoolhouse of Tyrannus, where he continued his ministry for two years with glorious results.

3. God Working Miracles by Paul
 (vv. 11-12).
 Tyrannus was noted for his wonderful magic. If Paul's ministry was to be successful God must in an extraordinary way put His seal upon the work. The wonderful was the divine power manifested that even hard hearts were opened. "For the Lord was with him, and he wrought great signs and wonders among the people."
 (Acts 19:12)

4. A Glorious Revival at Ephesus
 (vv. 13-17).
 The Lord did a great work in the hearts of the people. Many were saved. The Lord was with Paul, and he wrought great signs and wonders
 among the people.

5. The power of the gospel in destroying the infamous business of idolatry and its followers.
 The Lord was with Paul, and he wrought great signs and wonders
 among the people.

UPTON

A crew of men under E. A. Webber, working on the U. S. Geological Survey, have moved into C. A. Judkins' cottage for the month of October.

Miss Ruth Hawkes, who has been working at the Abbott House during the summer has gone to York Beach to join her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hawkes.
 From there they will all go to California for the winter.

Mrs. Merle Henderson is recovering from a bad cold.

Mrs. Selma J. Sanborn of Weld is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Judkins.

Perry Judkins, who is working on the U. S. Geological Survey under A. P.
 Fowler, near Pittsburgh, N. H., was home over the week end.

Cleo Brown is putting a concrete basement in J. O. Douglass' store.
 S. E. Penner is away for a few days.
 Many from town attended Newry Fair last Saturday in spite of the cold weather.

The ladies held a Farm Bureau meeting at the Grange Hall, Tuesday. The subject was "Household Management."

NORTH NORWAY

Frank Morse has gone to the village where he has employment with Walter Chaffman for the winter.

The French Brothers are doing some repair work around their home at South's Corner. Percy Bartlett is helping them.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Judkins motored to Bethel, Orono Tuesday Sept.
 25th to visit their aunt and cousin,
 Mrs. Sylvia Andrews and daughter,
 Mrs. Mabel Wilbur.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Morse and son,
 Everett, were in Lewiston Wednesday,
 Sept. 26th.

Mrs. Madeline Packard, wife of Asa Packard, who has been in the C. M. G.
 hospital several days, is gaining slowly.
 She has a fine baby boy.

Mrs. Alma Thurston and sons and Mrs. Alvin Brown, Norway Center, attended Newry Fair Saturday.

There was quite a jolly gathering of relatives and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Judkins on Sunday, Sept. 29th. Twenty-four gathered round the social board at dinner time. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brockler, Mrs. Inez Bean, Miss Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Andrews, W. B. Cammings, Mrs. Daisy Philbrook and daughter, Miss Hobbins Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stearns, Mrs. Alta Bird and Mrs. Herman Cummings and two sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Andrews all of Norway.

There was the best and bestest made on town Tuesday. The day was most largely spent and will ever remain as a red letter day in the minds of the best and bestest.

Percy Bartlett of Northwest Norway
 and one of his work horses Monday.

NORTH WOODSTOCK

Alice Knight was ill last week with a bad cold and tonsillitis, but is able to be back at school again now.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cole called at Herman Fuller's Friday night.
 Arnold Coffin has left school and is going to Bethel picking up potatoes at the Ladd farm.

Mrs. Eva Fuller, Maxine, Lloyd and Ardella Fuller went to Andover Fair with Walter Tyler.

Charles Wilson of Rumford Corner passed away Wednesday morning after a critical illness of several weeks with heart trouble. It is an especially sad case as his only son, Wilbur, was taken away only four months ago. The shock of his death was a contributory cause of Mr. Wilson's death. All hearts go out to Mrs. Wilson in her great bereavement.

Herman Fuller has gone to Upton to drive truck for his uncle, Henry Haman.
 Ruby Lane and Donald Bean called at Herman Fuller's Sunday.

Spend money systematically. Success lies not so much in the size of one's income as in relation of income to outgo.

GOOD PRINTING Inspires Confidence

When you send out a poorly printed circular, you make a very bad impression upon its recipient.

When you send out a well-printed circular, you inspire confidence and respect.

The quality of your printed matter reflects the dignity and distinction of your business enterprise.

We do printing at reasonable prices, you have nothing to worry about when you place a printing order with us—the work will be turned out promptly, correctly, and will be of the sort that inspires confidence, creates interest, and impresses with its good taste and neatness.

Give us a trial next time you need to have some printing done, and we'll prove that we live up to all the claims made in this advertisement.

SERVICE AND THE MAIL ORDER HOUSE

Automobiles, radio sets, tires, pianos and other similar things require service not only at the time you buy them, but more or less throughout their lives.

There are, of course, other things you buy where service is not a factor. But why send away for tires? The post office will not demount your old tire, mount the new one, inflate it to the correct pressure, examine your wheels for alignment, keep your rims free from rust and then at regular intervals inspect your tires for tread cuts and minor injuries.
 They don't keep free air and water on tap and maintain road service.

We do all these things.

Remember—no delay—no postage or express—no hand labor on your part and you see what you're getting before you buy.

We are here—at your call, every day in the year—for SERVICE.

CLOUDS

Erosion in the Grand Canyon.

(Prepared by the National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C.)

THIS dainty clouds that float in a summer sky and their darker brothers are only mists, but they constitute nature's sharpest tool for shaping the surface of the earth.

Over and over again, in the millions of years they have been at work, they have carried all the oceans and have hurled them down upon the land-billions of cubic miles of water.

They have washed away mountains greater than the Himalayas.

They have filled up oceans as broad and deep as the Atlantic.

If we were to slice down through the crust of the earth for thousands of feet—a mile, five miles, in places even ten—we would carve through cloud-built rocks, sediments laid down, grain upon grain, each carried by drops of water that have fallen from the skies.

The clouds have carved great valleys such as the Grand canyon.

They bore the feathery snowflakes which built up the huge glaciers that crushed and ground their way equatorward during the ice ages.

They furnished the chief reagent for nature's laboratory, dissolving and bringing together the minerals scattered through the rocks. The salt that flavors our food, the clay that builds our houses, the iron that has made industrialism and the age of steel—to single out but three—are largely gifts of the clouds.

These are the labors of the past. But the clouds are working now as ceaselessly as they worked once before man came upon the earth. Like the tools of the sculptor, these chiefs of the sun, under the great mallet of gravity are steadily shaping the earth day by day.

They spend themselves to make the streams, to water the crops, to feed the world. But new cloud generations are ever coming on to take their places.

They are mists; yet they form one of the staunchest pillars of life itself.

How Clouds Are Formed.

The birth of a cloud is a puzzle to the observer. The sky is apparently clear; then suddenly, seemingly from nowhere, a cloud patch is floating aloft. Nature seems to be playing tricks, like a conjurer who draws kicking rabbits from an empty hat.

Most clouds have their beginnings in the oceans, started by the restlessness of the innumerable small and inconceivably numerous water molecules that have fought their adventurous way to these great basins.

In the form of water, these little molecules are relatively at rest, huddled close to their fellows, but fairly free to slip about in the crowd of water particles. As they are pressed together, they vibrate, as do all other molecules of matter.

In the delightfully ordered world of the water molecules there is more room at the top than anywhere else, and there the most active molecules—made more active by greater heat—make their way. Like flying fishes, many of the molecules fall back into the water; but, unlike them, some can tear themselves entirely free. It is on its way, magically, the fish because a bird. The escaped molecules are in a sense no longer water; they have become transformed by this process of evaporation into a vapor or gas.

Vapor molecules are lighter than the oxygen and nitrogen molecules of the air. The vapor-laden air therefore rises for exactly the same reason that a balloon rises. The warmer the air, the more vapor it can contain. If, on the other hand, warm air contains less vapor than it is capable of holding, some vapor is cooled, its capacity for vapor diminished. This decrease in vapor capacity takes place in a back of moist air as it rises into the cooler upper regions, and if it is high enough to cool to the dew point, it simply drops part of its vapor load.

Then the Rain Falls.

As more and more droplets gather, they form a great misty mass that is so dense enough to obscure the sun. When water-vapor particles combine into water droplets, whether on their rise from the sea or after numerous cloud-making adventures, they do only group their nearest fellows together, but they must find infinitesimal bits of floating material, such as dust motes—a sort of magic carpet—and crawl upon them.

Widely separated, the dust motes, with their vapor passengers, at first float about like asteroids in space, but gradually the cold of the upper regions causes more and more of the vapor molecules to jump out of their gaseous form and attach themselves to existing droplets until the latter are built into drops heavy enough to fall earthward.

Sometimes the first drops of a thunder shower seem huge, as they dash past; but even the largest raindrops are relatively small. What is called popularly a "light rain," which just ceases being "drizzle," is made up of droplets only a trifle larger than the little black period that marks the end of this sentence. A "moderate rain" consists of drops with diameters only about twice that of the period, and the distance through a drop from a "heavy rain" is about that across four or five periods touching one another in a row. A rain classified as "excessive" has drops about the size of a capital "O." When drops larger than the latter fall steadily, the downpour is called a cloudburst.

And they can be only a little larger at that. Nature, through the laws of physics, has set strict limits both upon the size of raindrops and upon the speed at which they can fall; and the drop that attempts to pass either limit is promptly blown to pieces. The largest raindrops that strike the earth have diameters about equal to the diameter of the average lead pencil.

The greatest speed at which a raindrop may strike the earth, no matter from how great a height it falls, is close to 30 feet a second—a speed less than that of a pebble dropped from a fourth-story window.

In the average cloud that floats on an overcast but rainless day—a cloud such as those that bear most of the world's water from the sea—there are not more than two tablespoonfuls of water in cloud enough to fill the biggest furniture van; and, unless you live in a mansion, your dining room could not hold half the cloud substance that nature has crammed into one glass of water on your breakfast table.

Clouds Work for Man.

Clouds are power for man as well as for nature. The clean white scrap of mist floating in the sky and the grimy, black lump of coal far under ground are brothers under their skins—both children of the sun. One, born millions of years ago and locked deep in the earth, must be toilfully dug out and brought to the surface before it will yield the power it holds. The other, born yesterday, will presently mine itself, and if its fragments are merely gubbed on their dash to the sea, they seem eager to turn man's machinery.

Man cannot tow his loads of sky coal where he will. Nature, however, them along definite highways and dumps them with fair regularity in her chosen places. For ages man used them only near where they fell or along the channels they more in these days, however, but now he has in effect altered the clouds. He has learned to transmute the downhill waterfalls of their fragments into invisible but potent streams of electricity that will be doing wires far from the old dumping channels. And now, the man who lives in a desert where you seldom see a cloud, you may have those of some favored lands for your servants. Press a button and they light your house, boil your coffee, and perhaps even run your car.

Fortunate it is that that portion of the sea which laps over in the air is so generous; for if all the clouds should gather and dump their burdens, now over one third of the earth, now over another, man and his works and most vegetation would be uprooted and swept from the face of the earth.

It is no less fortunate that rivers and glaciers and clouds are pouring water into the sea almost exactly as fast as it is being taken out by the sun. If in some way the amount which now evaporates daily were pocketed in a gargantuan cave or flung away into space, the oceans would last less than 2,700 years.

NORTH PARIS

The "Snappy Six" will hold their local contest at Community Hall Thursday evening. Everyone is cordially invited. Mrs. James Gibbs is the leader of this group.

Many of the farmers began picking their apples Monday. There will be a very small crop in this section.

The heavy frosts of the past week have ruined all the gardens and pieces of corn. Potatoes are rotting badly from the effects of the early blight caused by the rainy weather.

Mrs. Duncan McPherson and brother, Carlos Smith, of Newry were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Coffin Friday. Mrs. Martha Martin returned home with them for several weeks visit with relatives in Bethel, Newry and Rumford. Gordon Wheeler is staying with his sister, Mrs. Lorenzo Cole, at West Paris and attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harrison and daughter, Ernestine, of Sanford were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Crandlemire and son Paul of Vanceboro, Maine, were week end guests of their daughter, Miss Aubine Crandlemire at A. B. Abbott's. Clarence Coffin was home over the week end from his work at East Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Coffin and son, Clarence, motored to Rumford Sunday where they called on several relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gibbs and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Richardson and daughter, Inez, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Libby at Sumner Sunday.

Miss Dora Kimball was able to return to her work at Norway Monday after several days illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Conant and family spent the week end with relatives in Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Trask are having every room in their house papered and painted.

John Gibbs is working for John McKean.

Rev. M. N. is ill with typhoid fever.

NEWRY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey of South Paris and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Smith were Sunday callers at Walter Powers'.

H. R. Powers and family were in Rumford one day last week.

Some of the people are trying to dig potatoes between the showers.

Mrs. Martha Martin of North Paris is visiting her niece, Mrs. McPherson and attended the Fair here Saturday.

Hazel Smith spent the week end at her father's, D. C. Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey of South Paris were guests of D. C. Smith and family Saturday and Sunday and attended the fair and dance at Newry Corner Saturday.

Sunday callers at D. C. Smith's were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McPherson and Mrs. Martha Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey called on Mr. and Mrs. French and at Walter Powers' Sunday.

Mrs. Don Smith and children, Mrs. Leon Enman and little daughter took dinner with Mrs. Selma McPherson Saturday.

Lawrence McPherson and family of Dixfield were guests of Mrs. Duncan McPherson and attended the fair and dance at Newry Saturday returning to their home Sunday.

To the People of Maine:

The stockholders, directors, management, officials and employees of the Maine Central Railroad take this opportunity of expressing to you, citizens of the Pine Tree State, our sincere appreciation of your vote of confidence as expressed in the excise tax referendum on September 10th.

The new excise tax law, passed by your overwhelming vote, under present conditions permits us to share in the general reduction of taxes as voted by the last Legislature.

Our railroad is the principal beneficiary of your action which, in the end, will not only be of benefit to us, but also to everyone who ships or travels in Maine—as it will help us to render more efficient transportation service in step with modern methods.

De Laval
Golden Series

THESE "50th Anniversary" De Laval Separators are without doubt the finest cream separators ever made—the crowning achievement in 50 years of separator manufacture and leadership. Following are the improved features:

Golden Color. These new 1928 machines are finished in beautiful gold and black colors, which are pleasing, durable and practical.

Enclosed Gears. All gears on the "Golden Series" are completely enclosed and protected for maximum durability.

Regulating Cover. A new type of regulating cover and float affords a flow of milk from the supply can in a smooth, even stream, without splashing.

Turnable Supply Can. A novel feature every separator user will appreciate. Permits bowl and covers to be removed or put in place without lifting the supply can from its position.

Easier Turning. The "Golden Series" machines are easier to start and turn, requiring the least power or effort to operate, for the work they do.

Oil Window. Shows at a glance the amount and condition of the oil and if the separator is being properly oiled.

Floating Bowl. The finest separator bowl ever made. Self-balancing, runs smoothly without vibration, with the least power, cleans cleaner, delivers a smooth, rich cream, and is easy to take apart and work.

The best way to appreciate the "Golden Series" is to see and try one. We now have them on display and will welcome an opportunity of giving you a demonstration.

Personal

Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. Rich have closed their camp, "The Roost," at Songo Pond, and left Wednesday via Canada for New York.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cummings of Hanover in the death of their infant son, Monday, Oct. 1.

Mrs. Lydia Swicker, who recently sold her place to Clyde Brooks, is going soon to live with her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Hoow, in Truro, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Goddard are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Robert Franklin, at the Bright-leek Hospital, St. Johnsbury, Sept. 26.

W. H. Thurston has built an addition on his barn on the Locke's Mills road. Norman Sanborn did the carpenter work.

Miss Grace Bonillard returned to her home on the Locke's Mills road after spending a three weeks vacation with Mrs. Howard Gunther.

Mrs. Ava Burgess and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reno of Worcester, Mass., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Baker.

Mrs. Jennie Mower of Auburn, who has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Bean, is visiting relatives in Gorham, N. H., for a few days.

Mrs. Arthur Cutler entertained at bridge Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Irving Carver, Mrs. Eugene Van Den Kerckhoven, Mrs. Laurence Leach, Mrs. Myron Bryant, Mrs. Louis Van Den Kerckhoven, Mrs. Earle Davis, Mrs. John Butts, and the hostess made up two tables. Mrs. Leach was given first prize and Mrs. Louis Van Den Kerckhoven the consolation prize.

RAILROAD EXCISE TAX LAW
The contents of the veto upon the railroad excise tax law referred on Oct. 3 upon September 1927, shows that the measure carried by considerable more than two to one.

The total vote of the State was 119,762 YES, or for granting tax relief to the railroads, or against 52,350 NO votes, a majority of 67,412.

Opponents of the new law carried a single county, Aroostook, and there the margin was only 84.

In Oxford County the Yes vote was 3,438 and the No, 3,570. The town of Bethel favored the new law 244 to 125.

WHY, OF COURSE!

She waited on the corner joyously, then pensively, then expectantly, then casually, then anxiously, and two hours passed.

"Man," she said, "is a perfidious animal, faithless and untrue, incapable of consummating a promise," and so she became a cynic.

Two hundred yards down the street he said the same thing about women—she was on the wrong corner.—Tithis.

How to Hit 80

Auto Prospect—But I don't want to buy a car that runs 70 or 80 miles an hour.

Salesman—Don't let that worry you. This car doesn't really go that fast. But people like to brag about going fast and to please them we fix the speedometers so they show twice as much as the car is going.—Pathfinder.

LEARNING BY NOTE

Friend—"Is your daughter learning to sing by note?" Dad—"Yes—a five-dollar note every lesson."

What a Break!

A wealthy citizen who had tasted most of life's pleasures was feeling low. Nothing seemed to be the matter, but low he was. So he called his physician.

"Doctor," he complained, "I'm sick of everything."

"Great,"—American Legion Monthly.

Easy to Guess

Customer—Have you a book on salmonids?
Book Clerk—Yeah—(yawn)—we've got 'em. Look around and maybe you'll see it. I haven't read it myself.

Customer—I should say you haven't.

Proper Securities

"I have a note to borrow five dollars from you. Is he good for that amount?"

"Yes, with proper securities."

"What would you suggest?"

"A chain and padlock, a pair of handcuffs, and a watchdog."

The Candid Poet

The guests at a thoroughly enjoyed the evening of a staffed by a local poet. He was the last to depart. The hostess asked him to hand and said: "Poets are born—"

"And," he interrupted, "not paid."

PRESENTED AT COURT

"He says he's been presented at court."
"I'd like to have—twice for embezzlement and forgery once."

The Jokes

"Did you write all the jokes in your paper?"
"Yes."

"Well, if I may compliment you, you must be much older than you look."

All Over

Country Policeman (at scene of murder)—You can't come in here.

Reporter—But I've been sent to do the murder.

Country Policeman—Well, you're too late; the murder's been done.

An Aberration

His sister (wealthy)—How on earth did you come to propose to Bert?

Theresa Young—Well, we were sitting on the stairs, and some one came and asked me on the back of the head.

Complication in Refusal

Mrs. Jones—Doesn't your husband's attorney bother you?
Mrs. Smith—On the contrary, it helps me. He'd much rather help with the housework than say "No."

Sole Tenant

Dick—Yes, I can't get you out of my mind!
Mildred—It ought to be easy; there'd be no danger of getting me mixed up with something else.

Famous Painting

O. P. Fairfield in "The Italian Renaissance in Art" says that the Sistine "Madonna" was executed for the Church of San Sisto, at Piacenza, "and for this reason takes its name of the Sistine, or 'Sixtine.'" The Sistine "Madonna" is still in Dresden, where it has been for many years. The painting was purchased by the elector of Saxony, Augustus III, in 1753.

Bird Bowers

The different types of bowerbirds found in Australasia build various types or bowers which serve as a stage whereon the male may display his grace and activity before his feminine audience. Some build cabins with lawns in front, some an arbor and others a sort of platform decked with mosses, flowers and bright berries. These bowers are entirely distinct from the nests.

Oak Always Prized

"Sturdy as an oak." What school boy doesn't know this moniker of the forests as the symbol of strength and character? In a multitude of ballad associations, oak has rooted itself deep in the affections of man, and from the earliest days of recorded history to the present time has been highly valued for its utility and beauty, with the widest range of use of any known wood.

THE DISMANTLED TRUE MANSION

So many seekers for bargains have regretted not knowing of a private sale under Mrs. G. L. Thurston's efficient help, that we state there are still left some articles of value.

Beds with hair mattresses, in perfect condition. One real old cherry wood bedstead, with springs and mattress, frame to match the set. Window shades for small windows. Several good turning stools, and one modern dish-washing machine, new and in perfect order.

The house will be open all next week. Mrs. Thurston on telephone call. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Tibbetts and Miss Frances F. Carter spent the week end with Miss Grace Carter. The Misses Helen, Margaret, and Rebecca Carter were in South Paris Saturday. Mrs. E. M. Carter assisted at Naim's store Saturday. Harry Carter and daughter, Elmor, Miss Grace Carter and Miss Catherine Seaton attended Andover fair Friday. Walter Balentine has opened his cider mill. Mrs. Bessie Soule spent the week end with her father, Orlan Stanley. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cotton and family were visitors at Walter Balentine's Sunday. Miss Mary Stanley was in Portland Saturday. Mrs. E. M. Carter spent Sunday at C. A. Capen's. Mrs. Willis Ward and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, spent Tuesday with Mrs. E. M. Carter. Miss Elmira G. Wheeler of Bethel spent Monday night with Miss Rebecca Carter. Mrs. Fred A. Tibbetts of Portland is visiting her sister, Miss Grace Carter, this week. Mrs. Mary Jane Capen is visiting daughter, Miss Minnie Capen.

WATERFORD

Architect's plans and specifications for the new community house to replace the one burned have been received from Architect John C. Stevens of Portland, and are now being examined by contractors with a view to making bids for erecting the building. It is hoped that a contract can soon be let and the work begun. A Circle supper was held at the Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening. Following the supper there was an exhibit of the work done by the Keoka 4-H Club. This club has been conducted by Mrs. Harold Pike and Mrs. Urban Tyler, and they are to be commended for their faithful work, and the children are to be congratulated on having such efficient and interested leaders. Merwin Marston, young son of Lawrence Marston of East Waterford, who is ill with typhoid fever, is reported to be no worse, with some slight gain. William Heath is under the doctor's care. Severe frosts have seriously damaged late gardens and crops.

WEST PARIS

Onward Rebekah Lodge of West Paris invited Sunset Rebekah Lodge of Bethel for a double installation on Tuesday evening. Supper was served at 6:30 P. M. The West Paris Orchestra, consisting of Bean, McDaniel, Inman, Doughty and Davis, will play for the Minors Ball which will be held at Minot on October 12. Mrs. Edna Emery sold all her household goods at auction Saturday. After the auction she and her son, Gerry, left for Augusta where they have a rent. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dunham and family were in Portland recently. Many from here attended the fair at Andover last week. Rev. and Mrs. James Barr are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son. The little one has been named Charles Russell. Mr. and Mrs. A. Chute and daughter of Auburn spent the week end in town, the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hollis. Leslie Doughty and wife have moved in the rent with Robert Young and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Haines and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Inman and son were in Andover Sunday visiting friends. Mrs. Mabel Bacon has completed her duties at South Paris and has returned to her home in the Dunham block. Fremont Whitman has returned from the C. M. G. Hospital after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. Miss Gladys Ross, who has been nursing at Rumford, returned home last week. Henry Bates of New Haven, Conn., was a recent visitor of his brother, L. C. Bates. Mrs. Elden Verrill is visiting in the home of Oral Collins at Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin of Portland were in town Sunday to attend the Martin reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mixer and Lois were in Lovell Sunday. Allen E. Cole of Gorham, N. H., is substituting for Fremont Whitman at the section. Bud Hadley, manager of The First National State, is enjoying his vacation at Stonham where he has a camp. George Jackson has purchased Lauri Immonen's place on High Street. Rev. Althea Quimby of Turner and Portland gave a very able address at the Universalist church Sunday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. The chorus choir with Mrs. Laura McKee, organist from the United Parish, sang, also Rev. J. W. Barr of the United Parish and Mrs. Charles Bates from the Universalist church sang a duet. The stirring address of Mrs. Quimby and the fine music gave an evening of inspiration to a good sized audience, but like all meetings did not reach those who most needed to hear them. West Paris Sunday Schools were well represented at the religious council of Sunday School work at Bethel Thursday evening. Mrs. Martha Kendall was at home over the week end from her work at Norway. Glendine Ring has been ill with pleurisy for a day or two and confined to the house. The monthly business meeting of the Universalist Sunday School was held at home of the superintendent, Harold C. Perham. The Good Will Society met with Mrs. Clara Bidlon Wednesday. Mrs. Mabel Mann and mother, Mrs. Jennie Andrews, have returned from Bryant's Pond where they spent the summer. The Abbott family held a family reunion at Robbins Nest, Locke's Mills, Sunday. Rev. Josephine Folsom, wife of Rev. Milo G. Folsom of Pittsfield, and secretary of the W. N. M. A. of America, was the guest of Rev. Eleanor B. Folsom Saturday and Sunday, the 23d. Mrs. Folsom gave a very able sermon at the Universalist church Sunday. Rev. Eleanor B. Folsom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Perham and Mrs. H. R. Tuell attended the Universalist state convention at Lewiston and Auburn last week. The young people of the United Parish held a social at Centennial Hall last Thursday evening. Mrs. Lora Herlick entertained Mrs. Clara Littlehale of Bryant's Pond over the week end, and Mrs. Walter Littlehale was a guest at dinner Tuesday. Lawrence Whitman carried Mrs. Kate Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Herlick, and Allan Cole to Lewiston Thursday evening to see Freeman Whitman who is in the Central Maine General Hospital, having had an operation for appendicitis. He is doing well, and hopes to get home the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Russell attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Charles Wilson of Rumford, Friday afternoon. Elmer Bryant, who has been boarding at Freeport Herlick's, is picking apples for Alfred Andrews. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Riley, son Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Lefebvre, of Rumford, called at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb's Sunday afternoon.

NORTHWEST BETHEL

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brown are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son. He has been named Edward Robert. Lester Coolidge spent the week end with his brother, Floyd Coolidge, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Thomas of Rumford spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman. Quite a number attended the fair at Newry Corner Saturday. Master Linwood Mason has returned from a visit with his mother in Portland. Woodbury Thayer has finished his home and moved his family in. He is working for Jack Chapman. L. A. Sumner is helping Jack Chapman dig his potatoes. Will Garey has a crew working at the reservoir on Chapman Brook. C. A. Mason of Sandown, N. H., was called here by the illness and death of his father, E. L. Mason. This is the first time in 46 years that he has seen his brother, Lee Mason, of California who has been caring for his aged father. Mrs. E. S. Skillings of Portland was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Helen Perkins, Tuesday.

MILTON

Several from this way attended the funeral of John Buck of New Gloucester who was run over and killed by an automobile last week. He was a native of this place, and lived the earlier part of his life here. The passing away of Charles Wilson has made quite a change here in our vicinity as Mrs. Wilson has broken up housekeeping and stored her goods here in her home for the present. She and the little nephew who has lived with them for several years have gone to Lewiston for the present. They will be greatly missed by their many friends. Granger Chase and wife have returned to their home at Abbott's Mills for the winter. Clara Jackson spent the week end with friends in Portland. James Brown and wife of Lewiston were visitors at Clinton Buck's Sunday. John Bean and wife of Rumford were Sunday visitors at Francis Lapham's.

GLENN K. RULE BECOMES EDITOR

Glenn K. Rule of Van Wert, Ohio, for over nine years county agent in Van Wert county, has been appointed editor of the Extension Service, College of Agriculture effective October 16, according to an announcement just made by Dr. Leon S. Merrill, dean of the college and director of the Extension Service. He succeeds Charles E. Crossland who resigned to become alumni secretary at the University. By training, experience and recommendation, Rule is exceptionally well qualified for the position to which he has been appointed. Born on a farm, a graduate of the Ohio State College of Agriculture, two years a farmer, nine years a county agent and a special course in news writing and agricultural journalism is briefly the background of experience and training which should prove valuable to him in dealing with news and publicity problems in Maine. As Extension editor, he will have charge of state wide news service for the Extension Service, edit publications, cooperate with state and county extension agents in preparing printed material of all kinds and will train and assist extension agents located in the counties. His headquarters will be at the College of Agriculture, University of Maine.

WHAT IT COSTS TO GOVERN US

By PROF. M. H. HUNTER

Dept. of Economics, Univ. of Illinois

Income Taxes for State Revenue

YOU, of course, know that the federal government levies a tax on incomes. But did you realize that eleven states receive something like $10,000,000 a year from a tax on personal incomes? These are Delaware, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and Wisconsin. There is considerable agitation for its adoption in other states, while in others a constitutional amendment to make it possible is being considered.

The idea of a state tax on incomes is not new. In fact, there has never been a time when one or more of the states did not make some provision for the taxation of incomes. Even in some of the colonies income was used as one of the taxable bases. In most of the early attempts, however, there was no centralization of administration and little pressure from officials. Wisconsin is frequently cited as the first state to adopt the income tax, since it has been of considerable importance in her revenue system since 1911. From the income tax individuals are allowed to deduct the amount of tax paid on personal property. This has meant a deduction of about 40 per cent of the tax levy. The rates are progressive from 1 per cent to 6 per cent, the latter applying to all incomes of more than $12,000. No exemptions are allowed, but deductions are made from the tax for single individuals, heads of families, and dependents. Sixty per cent of the receipts are distributed to localities.

Massachusetts does not use progressive rates but classifies incomes and taxes the classes at different rates. The income from intangibles is taxed at 6 per cent; that from annuities, 1 1/2 per cent; that from professions and occupations, 1 1/2 per cent. An exemption of $2,000 is allowed a single individual, $2,500 to the head of a family, and $250 for each dependent. The receipts, above cost of administration, are distributed to localities. The state of New York adopted the income tax in 1919. One per cent is levied upon incomes not exceeding $10,000; 2 per cent from $10,000 to $25,000; and 3 per cent on the remainder. An exemption of $1,000 is allowed a single individual, $2,000 to the head of a family, with $500 for each dependent. One-half the receipts is retained for state use and the remainder distributed to localities on the basis of the assessed value of real estate.

SOUTH WATERFORD

The first supper by the Community Club for the season was at the Grange Hall on Wednesday at 6:30, when the Oxford United Parish presented the picture, "The Blind Goddess". The supper was in charge of Mrs. Fannie T. Green and her helpers and it was the usual delicious supper with a good attendance. The next one comes on October 10th.

Mrs. Sarah Green visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Burham, in Bridgton, one day this past week.

Arthur Kingman has been working for Chas. Lockwood at the Flat for the past week.

Mrs. M. A. Floyd has been quite ill with a bad cold for a few days.

Lewis Bell of North Dakota has spent the past week with his sister, Mrs. W. K. Hamlin. Mr. Bell left Waterford fifty-one years ago and took up a farm in the west. Today he owns acres of fine farm land and many cattle. His nephew, Arthur Bell, son of Frank Bell, is located near his uncle and doing quite extensive farming. Mr. Bell finds many of his old friends gone. The last time he was here was sixteen years ago and many changes can take place in that number of years.

Mrs. Sarah Hamlin entertained Mrs. E. K. Kilgore and Mrs. Jennie Haynes at dinner on Wednesday.

A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Ida A. Holden at the home of Albert W. Hamlin on Friday evening, the 28th.

Mrs. Collins entertained the Holden's at supper and it being such a beautiful moonlight evening, Mr. Collins suggested an auto ride. At eight o'clock he drove slowly into the Hamlin yard and blew his horn. The guests that had gathered rushed out to congratulate Mrs. Holden. When the excitement was over eight tables were filled and what was enjoyed. Before the refreshments were served, the rooms were darkened and Mrs. Albert Hamlin presented a beautiful birthday cake, decorated in yellow.

The hostesses, Mrs. Marion Hamlin, Mrs. Fannie T. Green and Mrs. Ben Collins served delicious home-made nut caramel ice-cream and all kinds of cakes contributed by various friends. Mrs. M. A. Floyd found the thimble and Curtis Marr the ring that was baked in the birthday cake. Following the refreshments, Mrs. Marion Hamlin presented Mrs. Holden with a box of money given by friends that she might purchase some gift she desired to remember the occasion by.

Mrs. Martha Perry, Mrs. Clara Sargent, Mrs. M. Etta Watson, Mrs. A. Monroe and Ethel were in Harrison on Thursday, calling on Mrs. Riggs and Charles.

Mrs. Leon Willard has returned home to Portland. Mr. Willard is still in Waterford.

E. K. Kilgore and family, Lillian Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Goodwin and Carl Hamlin's family attended Eastern Star meeting at the Flat on Friday evening. A supper was served at 6:30, the first for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hamlin and Mrs. Phebe Haggood were in South Paris one day this past week on business.

The Hamlin mill is very busy making apple boxes that are being trucked to Buckfield by Joe Skinner who is making two trips daily.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Monroe and son, Robert, of Melrose, Mass., arrived in town on Friday. Saturday they were in Lovell trying the golf course. They returned on Sunday, taking his mother and sister, Mrs. A. A. Monroe and Ethel, for a visit in Massachusetts.

Dr. and Mrs. Watson of Haverhill, Mass., spent the week end in town with his mother, Mrs. M. Etta Watson and attended the Evening Fair.

Jason Priole and his daughter, Mrs. Edith Elliott of Windham Centre spent the day with Mrs. A. A. Monroe on Tuesday.

Dorothy Holden has been helping her aunt, Flora Abbott, during her recent illness.

Waterford had another bad fire on Saturday afternoon when the old Young store at South Waterford, owned by W. K. Hamlin, was burned. Henry Haynes when coming out of the Post Office at three o'clock discovered the smoke coming out of the roof of the old building. Mrs. Ida Holden, the post mistress, immediately called for Harrison and Norway Fire Departments.

The men who gathered began to carry pails of water but they found the attic floor all ablaze and soon turned their attention to the household goods. They were forced to batter in the door to the apartment occupied by Ben Collins and family who were in Norway, getting back while the fire raged, yet they met with big losses. While many were helping help others were busy clearing the post office of its contents. Before this task was completed, the Harrison fire engine arrived and was stationed near the old Watson mill. It soon began pumping and taking care of the post office building. A little later the Norway fire department arrived and they cared for the end of the building on the north.

These firemen did well to save the buildings so close to such intense heat. We all feel that the great per cent of the homes on that street would have burned but for their efforts. It was late in the evening before the firemen felt safe in leaving. The women of the community gathered in food and served a supper for the tired firemen at the Grange hall.

Everyone is sorry for the Collins family in their great loss. At present they are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Hamlin.

After it was deemed prudent to do so the store goods of Mrs. Holden were stored in the barn and her household goods and post office materials were returned to the house. Mr. Hamlin had a good list of supplies for the creamery stored in this building but all were saved. There was no insurance. It almost seems as if Waterford is having more than its share of bad fires this season.

Don't play always at one game. Adopt new tactics. Infuse new interest into your daily life. A game too long played will leave you vacant and forlorn.

Appearance of Food Enhanced

A little covered bowl of left-over string beans, peas or asparagus, taken plump and inviting from the cool depths of the electric refrigerator, presents an appetizing appearance very different from the usual wilted and dried look of foods which have been kept in a wavering, varying temperature. Served on chilled lettuce, which has been carefully washed, placed in a covered pan and tucked away as soon as it arrived from the market, salad will make a very refreshing salad. Top the salad, which may very nicely be a combination of left-over beans, peas and asparagus, with a spoonful of mayonnaise blended with one of chili sauce, both of which the canny housewife keeps conveniently at hand in a corner of her electric ice-box.

A spoonful of left-over fruit, fresh or canned, placed in the refrigerator in a covered bowl will come forth fresh and nicely flavored to add the finishing touch to a dessert; and odds and ends of cooked meat put carefully away in a covered dish, to be added to from day to day, will blend deliciously in a ragout or a meat pie or, finely chopped and tastily flavored, they will provide a plate of mysteriously good sandwiches for a picnic luncheon.

And the Sunday dinner left-overs may be kept in the electric refrigerator until Thursday or Friday when, every one having forgotten all about their being left-overs, they will come forth fresh and delicious and as attractive in taste and appearance as when they were originally served.

But one of the most satisfactory things about this modern kitchen and, she finds, is the way it takes care of cooked foods, left-overs

CHANDLER HILL (Deferred)

Mrs. Vear Bean and Mrs. Kirk were in Rumford last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jegan spent Saturday night at V. Bean's.

Wesley Bean and children and Frank Hodgkins went to Rumford, Sunday, to see Mrs. Bean, who is a patient at the Community Hospital. Mrs. Bean is doing as well as could be expected.

W. Bean has been hauling lumber to Andrew's Casket Shop in West Paris. Bean's saw mill has turned out quite a few cedar shingles.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schillinger of Intervale, Me., were Sunday guests of Mrs. G. A. Nichols, returning home Sunday afternoon via Rumford and Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford of Rumford called at the Kirk home Sunday P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Vear Bean with Alton Inman and Mrs. Blanche Hatastat made a Sunday trip to Whitefield, N. H., to visit Mrs. Bean's nephews.

Ralph Hatastat and family with their boarder, Lewis Etheridge, have moved back into the old camp on the Hill that they occupied last winter.

The person of true purpose meets his fellowman with an open, candid eye.

Have due regard for your personal appearance; this gives evidence of business judgement, not vanity.

ELECTRICITY LIGHTENS THE FOOD BILLS

By KATHERINE G. CORNELL
Director of the Kabinator
Domestic Institute

In the old days — when pork chops might be had for ten cents a pound, and eggs were high at twenty-five cents a dozen — we didn't discuss economy to any great extent. If we found it necessary or expedient to save, we did so and said nothing about it.

Today, however, it is quite the smart thing to be thrifty to live by a budget, to study the food needs of the family and buy prudently. We like to make the best and most intelligent use of every piece of equipment we install in our home.

Aids Thrifty Habits

The woman who has put a modern, electrically-powered electric refrigerator in her kitchen has countless interesting surprises awaiting her. Not only does she find that it constantly and reliably refreshes her fresh food supplies so that even though they may remain unused for a week she need give herself no concern about them, but she discovers also that in its quiet, understanding way it is aiding and abetting her in all of her thrifty habits.

By marketing but once or twice a week, instead of every day, she saves time and effort, and she is able thus to effect a considerable saving in money also by buying in these larger quantities. Further, she may plan a whole week's menus in advance—another saving of time and worry, and of money as well.

But one of the most satisfactory things about this modern kitchen and, she finds, is the way it takes care of cooked foods, left-overs and odds and ends—usually the lane of a housewife's economy.
